THE MARINE
ARE COMING

Nov. 16, 1942
5:30 P.M.

Dear Mary;

Received your package and the Sunday Times yesterday. It was very much appreciated. The candy was delicious even tho it didn't last long. About cigarettes you needn't send me any more because I can get all that I want here.

There are a few things I would like to have if you won't mind sending them to me. I could use a good two cell flashlight with some extra bulbs. Also a hunting knife with the scabbard. Last but not least a pair of moccasins, size 10 F.

I'll send you the money to pay for these later on. The articles I want will have to stand a lot of abuse so buy the best you can.

Buy Lee a Christmas present for me won't you. Wish that I could buy something here but I don't have the chance.

I really am going to enjoy reading the Times. It sure has changed a lot since I left home. There are quite a few fellows in this outfit from home so it probably will be well read before it is discarded.

My sincerest hopes that this letter will find you in the best of health. Can't wait to find out if I have a nephew or a niece. Hope that you weren't bothered too much with labor pains. We're wishing that you have a speedy recovery.

Still in the pink except for an occasional toothache. My bridge seems to be loosening up and if it does good bye, because they don't have dentists here that do bridge work. Hope it lasts till I get back to the States.

My thanks again for your present and my blessings for all of you and until later, I remain

Sincerely Yours
Leopold.
